Directions for How-to-Measure

Use a soft measuring tape and snugly wrap

1. Bust: measure the fullest part with bra on and arms/elbows down
2. Ribcage/Empire Line: measure at the bottom of the bra line
3. Waist: measure the smallest part; just above the bellybutton
4. High Hip: measure 3" below the waist
5. Thigh/Bottom: everyone carries their weight differently; use the larger of these measurements
6. Upper Arm: measure with arms/elbows down
7. Length: measure from waist to the floor wearing the selected shoe. Each style is produced in one length for all sizes.

LENGTH

1. All gowns are 44" waist to hem. Bridal trains vary.
2. An additional 5" can be added on dresses, gowns and trains. Refer to Extras for charges.

EASE

1. Bust: 1"; no ease for strapless
2. Ribcage/Empire Line: 1"; no ease for strapless
3. Waist: 0 to 1" depending on style; no ease for strapless
4. High Hip: 0 to 1" depending on style
5. Thigh/Bottom: ½" to 2" on straight skirt; more ease in thigh on A-line styles
